

Europe

Your gateway to the world of international exhibitions

Fi Europe

2026 17 - 19 November, Messe Frankfurt, Germany

Invitation to the NL Pavilion

The global food ingredients industry will gather in Frankfurt for Fi Europe, 17 – 19 November 2026 (FIE Tech 2026) at Messe Frankfurt. This leading European platform brings together decision-makers in processing, packaging, food technology and ingredient innovation. The Netherlands will be prominently represented with a dedicated NL Pavilion in the Processing & Packaging and Food Technology Zone, “Technology & Services” (FIET) organized by Orange Exhibition Management.

Why join the NL Pavilion?

- High-impact positioning within the FIE Tech area
- Turnkey stand construction and project management
- Strong “NL branding” and visibility
- Networking opportunities and matchmaking support
- Reduced organizational burden focus on business

Participation options:

1. Join the NL Pavilion – Fully serviced stand space within the Dutch collective.
2. Individual participation – Secure your own stand location while benefiting from coordinated Dutch promotion and visibility.

Whether your company specializes in processing equipment, packaging solutions, food technology, or technical services, FIE Tech 2026 offers direct access to European and international buyers actively seeking innovation and partnerships.

We would be pleased to share the participation brochure, stand options, and pricing details with you.

If expanding your presence in the European food technology market is on your agenda for 2026, this is an excellent opportunity to position your company.

Would you be interested in exploring your participation at FIE Tech 2026?
